

110 Thee will I love

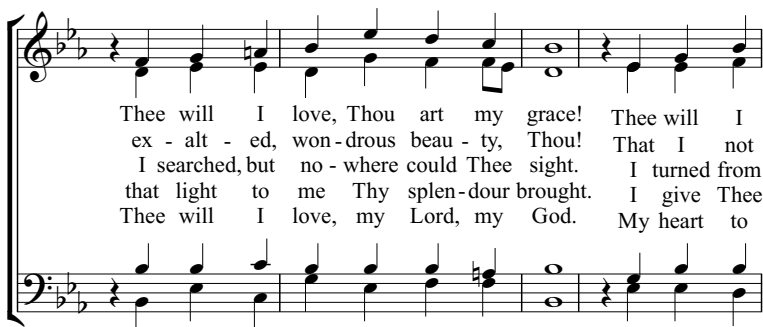

Johann Scheffler (1624-1677)

attr. Johann B König (1691-1758)

$\text{♩} = 76$

1. Thee will I love, my strength for - ev - er;
2. Ah, that so late I came to know Thee,
3. I went a - stray in deep con - fu - sion;
4. I give Thee thanks, Thou true Sun giv - en,
5. Thee will I love, my crown and splen - dour,

Thee will I love, Thou art my grace! Thee will I ex - alt - ed, won - drous beau - ty, Thou! That I not I searched, but no - where could Thee sight. I turned from that light to me Thy splen - dour brought. I give Thee Thee will I love, my Lord, my God. My heart to love in all en - deav - our, through all temp - soon - er did con - fess Thee and found Thy Thee in my de - lu - sion and loved the thanks, Thou bliss from heav - en, who joy for Thee, Lord, I will ren - der in times of ta - tions which I face. Thee will I true rest on - ly now. This is my gar - ish world - ly light. But now through me, and free - dom, wrought. I give Thee joy or pain - ful lot. Thee will I love, my light Thou art, with all my yearn - ing heart.

 deep re - gret and grief, so late I found re - lief!
 Thee it's been a - chieved: Thy love I have per - cieved!
 thanks, O Word so pure, that Thou my ills doth cure.
 love, my crown Thou art, thus beats my yearn - ing heart.