

113 Up, arise, O godly witness

Poet unknown

Composer unknown

$\text{♩} = 72$

1. Up, a - rise, O god - ly wit - ness and your
2. O be - ware, un - god - ly pow - ers threat - en 3. Though we are but few in num - ber and the stan - dard firm - ly plant, to the world the splen - dours here the ho - ly place. For they threat - en rights and foe as le - gions be, yet we'll close - ly fol - low show - ing of our glo - rious cov - e - nant! In the jus - tice and the truth try to a - base. Shall then Je - sus where He leads to lib - er - ty! He was name of God, our Fa - ther, let us spread the man - kind be de - stroyed here un - der these dark hum - ble through all suf - fring and the vic - to - gos - pel word that the pre - cious seed, now pow - ers' sway? No! We'll fight un - til we ry did gain, so shall we as ov - er - scat - tered, soon our toil - ing shall re - ward. con - quer, with new cour - age join the fray.

 com - ers then with Him our peace at - tain!