

118 Your wisdom, Lord, awake in me

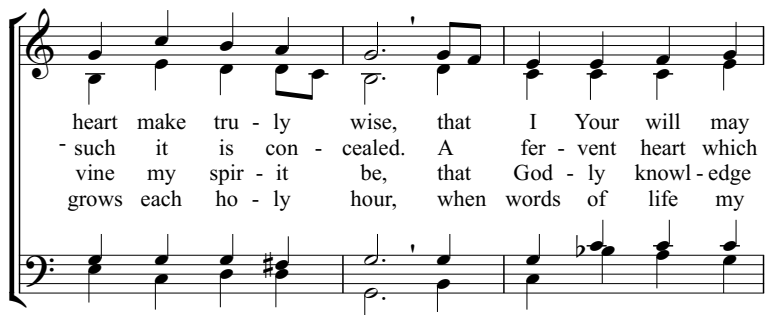

Peter Lambert (b. 1964)

Thomas Jackson (1715-1781)

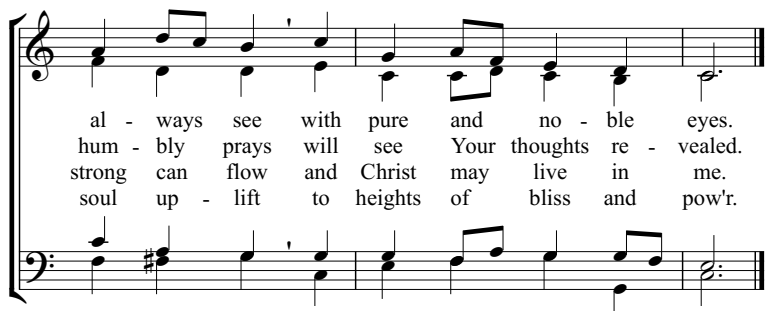

$\text{♩} = 80$

1. Your wis - dom, Lord, a - wake in me; my
2. No earth - ly mind shall know Your ways, for
3. May in - spi - ra - tion dai - ly grow, di -
4. My trea - sure, then, shall be this gift which heart make tru - ly wise, that I Your will may

- such it is con - cealed. A fer - vent heart which vine my spir - it be, that God - ly knowl - edge grows each ho - ly hour, when words of life my

al - ways see with pure and no - ble eyes.
hum - bly prays will see Your thoughts re - vealed.
strong can flow and Christ may live in me.
soul up - lift to heights of bliss and pow'r.