

120 Arise and let us hasten

Poet unknown

Composer unknown

$\text{♩} = 68$

1. A - rise and let us hast - en, the goal let us at -
2. O praise God's works of mer - cy and His re - deem - ing
3. O tell the souls in bond - age who still by sin are
4. When here our work is end - ed, how glo - rious it will tain. O let us now no long - er in i - dle - ness re - main!

might, for lead - ing us from dark - ness in - to His mar - v'ulous light!
bound:"There yet is grace and mer - cy with Je - sus to be found!"
be! U - nit - ed in the Spir - it, we'll dwell in Zi - on, free!

Come, broth - ers, come! Come, sis - ters, come! The hand of Je - sus Come, broth - ers, come! Come, sis - ters, come! Our ban - ner let us Come, broth - ers, come! Come, sis - ters, come! The Fa - ther has us Come, broth - ers, come! Come, sis - ters, come! The time's not far a - take, which He ex - tends in mer - cy through the a - pos - to - late.

wave, re - main - ing in the spir - it of Je - sus who does save!
sent to gath - er to His sup - per the wea - ry and the spent!
way. O in o - be - dience fol - low the word of God to - day!