

12 Hallelujah! Fairest morning

Jonathan Krause (1701-1762)

Ernst H Gebhardt (1832-1899)

$\text{♩} = 84$

1. Hal - le - lu - jah! Fair - est morn - ing! Fair - er than our
2. Sun - day, full of grace and glo - ry, sweet - est rest day
3. In the glad - ness of Your wor - ship, we will seek our
4. Let the day with You be end - ed as with You it words can say! We lay down the earth - ly bur - den of the soul! Here with - in a world of dark - ness joy to - day. It is then we taste the full - ness has be - gun. And Your bless - ing, Lord, be grant - ed of life's toil and care to - day, while this morn of do your bless - ings us con - sole. Ho - ly, hap - py, of the grace for which we pray and the word of till our days on earth are done. That at last Your joy and love brings fresh vig - our from a - bove. heav'n - ly day, you can drive our grief a - way.

life is giv'n, like the man - na once from heav'n.
chil - dren may keep e - ter - nal Sab - bath day.