

134 I send you forth

Karl Gerok (1815-1890)

Composer unknown, 1854

$\text{♩} = 66$

1. I send you forth, I am your Lord and 2. I send you forth, My word in faith to 3. I send you forth, I yearn for your re -

Mas - ter, your Sav - iour who ap - point - ed you to ut - ter, for I have giv - en you the Ho - ly turn - ing when you shall en - ter glo - ry and your serve. I send you forth, as He who rules all Ghost; and by it's pow'r the tim - id tongue is rest. When you, en - rap - tured, at My throne are spir - its, I give you charge My teach - ing to pre - loos - ened to teach the poor who noth - ing have to - stand - ing, a faith - ful ser - vant who has done his serve. I send you forth, take courage on your boast. I give the heart each day and each new best. As King I then will greet My faith - ful mis - sion. My word: "I send you," be your sa - cred ho - ur the strength to o - ver - come and fears sub - ser - vant who has en - dured in hard - ship, need and shield. Go forth and bear the con - se - crat - ed due. Give Spir - it's light, a liv - ing word and strife. A crown of gold to him shall be a - ban - ner, a - gainst the host of Sa - tan ne'er to yield. pow - er: "I send you forth, My bless - ings go with you!" ward - ed, a glo - rious fu - ture and e - ter - nal life!