

144 Of service be to Jesus

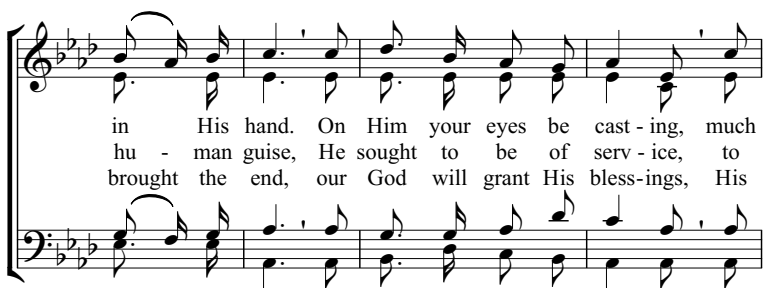

Poet unknown

Felix Mendelssohn (1809-1847)

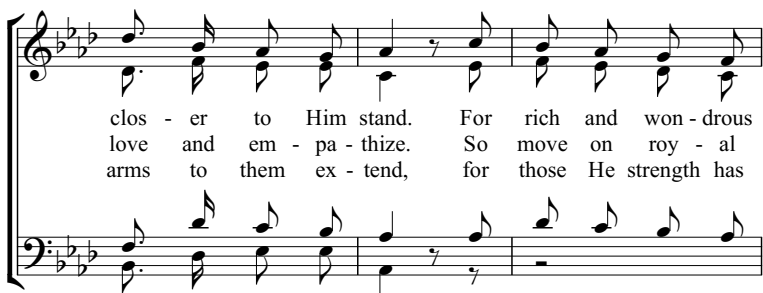

$\text{♩} = 58$

1. Of serv - ice be to Je - sus, a tool with -
2. When Christ, the Lord of Glo - ry, ap - peared in 3. When hands shall cease their la - bour, when death has in His hand. On Him your eyes be cast - ing, much hu - man guise, He sought to be of serv - ice, to brought the end, our God will grant His bless - ings, His clos - er to Him stand. For rich and won - drous love and em - pa - thize. So move on roy - al arms to them ex - tend, for those He strength has liv - ing did God His own cre - ate. Our lives to path-ways, all those who serve in love: A life to giv - en to serve and loy - al be, He leads from Him be giv - en, then joy - ful is our fate, our oth - ers giv - en, a bless - ing from a - bove, a all en - dea - vours as vic - tors home and free, He lives to Him be giv - en, then joy - ful is our fate.

 life to oth - ers giv - en, a bless - ing from a - bove.
 leads from all en - dea - vours as vic - tors home and free.