

145 One thing's needful!

Johann H Schröder (1667-1699)

Adam Krieger (1634-1666)

arr. Joachim Neander (1650-1680)

$\text{♩} = 81$

1. One thing's need - ful, says my Sav - iour, al - ways of this
2. Sit - ting at the feet of Je - sus list - 'ning to His
3. Je - sus, Thou art my sal - va - tion, Thou my love, my mind - ful be, name - ly, that my life should fo - cus lov - ing word, leav - ing earth - ly cares be - hind me all shall be. This can - not from me be tak - en -

$\text{♩} = 85$

on the love He shows to me. With - out Him my fos - ters one - ness with my Lord. Where Je - sus and Thou hast died to set me free. What - ev - er I heart will be rest - less and seek - ing as all here on man - kind in love are u - nit - ed, with God's per - fect need for my jour - ney to heav - en by Thee, O my earth is but trans - ient and fleet - ing. The full - ness the heart is de - light - ed. I Sav - iour, is lov - ing - ly giv - en. This gain of this one thing all loss can re - pay and there find the worth - i - est mo - ments, the best! My one thing is need - ful, all oth - ers are vain, I teach me in all things to fol - low His way.

one and my all, both my joy and my rest!
count all well lost if I Thee may ob - tain!