

150 So much to learn remains for ev'ry soul

Albert Knapp (1798-1864)

Franz A Hoffmeister (1754-1812)

$\text{♩} = 76$

1. So much to learn re - mains for ev - 'ry soul, for
2. So oft in earth - ly things we find our joy, yet 3. God's hand of love is of - fered here to - day. He we have not at - tained our cho - sen goal. To slow are we God's teach - ing to em - ploy. And sent His Son - for us pre - pared the way. His learn from God will o - pen heart and mind and oft - en here in all our earth - ly woe to teach - ing is: To walk the nar - row way. Let through His teach - ing bless - ing we will find. A grasp the hand of God we are not slow. We us take care in child - like mind to stay. Our hum - ble heart is o - pen to the Lord; our turn to Him in times of need and care, yet joy should be: Our life to give the Lord in will - ing - ness will bring a great re - ward. al - ways of His love should be a - ware.

gra - ti - tude that we are born of God!