

153 Striving onward, pressing forward

Philip F Hiller (1699-1769)

Composer unknown, 1853

$\text{♩} = 76$

1. Striv - ing on - ward, press - ing for - ward, life di - vine to
2. I am hast - ing, time not wast - ing, to the Fa - ther's 3. Je - sus guid - ing all my striv - ing ev - er to the 4. Thou must help me, for with - out Thee I'm not strong e - gain; I will ev - er make en - deav - our till I throne, for de - lay - ing in o - bey - ing can but goal. Should I wa - ver, then, O Sav - iour, strength - en nough. Where I'm fail - ing, I'll be gain - ing strength from it at - tain. What de - tains, I'll cast a - side, harm God's own. He who strives but tires to - day, Thou my soul! When temp - ta - tions come to me Thee a - bove. While Thy word brings life to me by that prom - ise to a - bide! Who en - dur - eth God can strength - en on the way. World - ly pleas - ure and from scorn and taunt I flee, let then mer - cy, and Thy Spir - it sets me free, Sa - lem's glo - ries life se - cur - eth and the prize shall gain.

holds no treas - ure, I wish naught of this.
love up - lift me; I'll tri - um - phant be.
rise be - fore me, may I en - ter in!