

16 How lovely on the Sabbath day

Poet unknown

Composer unknown

$\text{♩} = 68$

1. How love - ly on the Sab - bath day; the
2. My heart be - comes so full of joy, it
3. Re - kin - dled by the Spir - it's breath my
4. Sur - round - ed by an at - mos - phere of
5. The heart be - comes an al - tar there; in heights of faith I climb, trans - lat - ed from the does to song a - rouse and sings in wor - ship

fer - vour, cour - age flames and burns with wond - drous heav'n - ly light and grace, mid Shar - on's blos - som's' Christ, God is not far. I sac - ri - fice my - week - day cares to walk in realms sub - lime.

of the Lord with - in my Fa - ther's house.
hope and pow'r, my love for God ac - claims.
sweet - est scent, glad songs my fears dis - place.
self to Him with thoughts of Gol - go - tha.