

178 Forever with the Lord

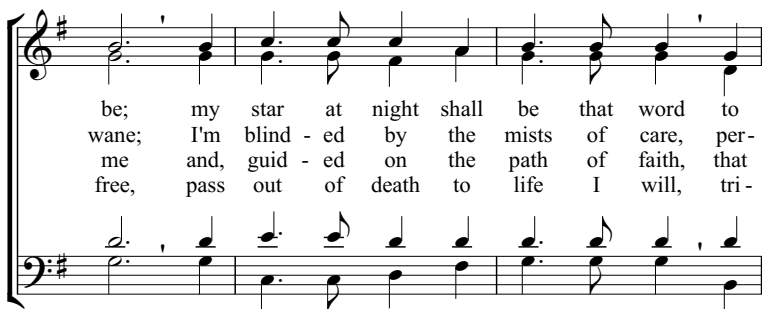

James Montgomery (1771-1854)

Isaac B Woodbury (1819-1858)

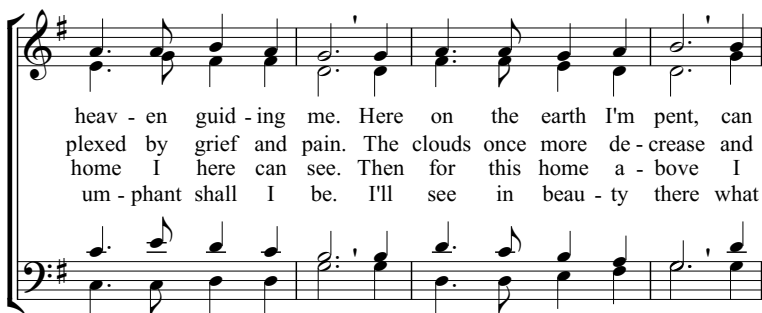

$\text{♩} = 70$

1. For - ev - er with the Lord! My lot shall al - ways
2. Though oft I can - not see, my sight be - gins to 3. I raise to heav'n my eyes. There home does beck - on 4. And when my pulse is still, my soul from bond - age be; my star at night shall be that word to wane; I'm blind - ed by the mists of care, per - me and, guid - ed on the path of faith, that free, pass out of death to life I will, tri - heav - en guid - ing me. Here on the earth I'm pent, can plexed by grief and pain. The clouds once more de - crease and home I here can see. Then for this home a - bove I um - phant shall I be. I'll see in beau - ty there what but a stran - er be, yet night - ly pitch my when the storms de - part, to bring me cheer, the yearn, there long to rest, to share in that great earth could not af - ford; and I shall be, how mov - ing tent, Lord, al - ways near - er Thee. Near - er light of peace brings com - fort to my heart. Light of won - drous love in realms of bless - ed - ness. Won - drous won - der - ful, for - ev - er with the Lord! Won - der -

Thee, near - er Thee; Lord, al - ways near - er Thee! peace, light of peace; what com - fort to my heart!
 love, won - drous love in realms of bless - ed - ness.
 ful, won - der - ful, for - ev - er with the Lord!