

192 I've found a joy in sorrow

Jane F Crewdson (1809-1863)

Ira D Sankey (1840-1908)

$\text{♩} = 112$

1. I've found a joy in sor-row, a pre-cious balm for
2. I've found a glad ho-san-na for ev-'ry woe and
3. This E-lim with its cool-ness, its foun-tains and its 4. My Sav-iour, You pos-sess-ing, I have the joy, the pain;_ a beau-ti-ful to-mor-row of wail._ A hand-ful of sweet man-na when shade,_ a bless-ing is in full-ness when balm,_ the heal-ing and the bless-ing, the sun-shine af-ter rain._ I've found a branch of grapes of Esh-col fail._ I've found a Rock of buds of prom-ise fade._ Oft through my tears re-sun-shine and the calm._ The prom-ise for the heal - ing near ev - 'ry bit - ter spring; for ev - 'ry anx - ious A - ges when des - ert wells are dry and af - ter wea - ry turn - ing I see the sun a - gain; it sa - tis - fies my fear - ful, the E - lim for the faint; the rain - bow for the feel - ing the Lord does com - fort bring, for ev - 'ry stag - es I've found an E - lim nigh, and af - ter year - ing and soothes my great - est pain, it sa - tis - tear - ful, the glo - ry for the saint, the rain - bow anx - ious feel - ing the Lord does com - fort bring.

 wea - ry stag - es I've found an E - lim nigh. fies my year - ing and soothes my great - est pain.
 for the tear - ful, the glo - ry for the saint!