1. On Zi-on's mount of ra-diant light, ye faith-ful he-ros,
2. The Prince of Life goes on be-fore, His word is our de-3. Then on-ward from the mount of light, our hearts with love arise.— Go forth to fight be-fore the night creeps fence.— We tread the path the saints of yore once flame,— we'll van- quish all the hosts of night in o'er the fad- ing skies.— A- gainst the foe that trod with con- fi- dence.— The liv- ing word, like Je- sus' con-qu'ring name!— The vic- tor wears the lurks be- low our forc- es let be hurled;— faith sun- shine bright, lights up this dark- ened world;— gives crown a- dored, white rai- ment of the Son.— The
