

210 Star, to which I'm looking

Kornelius F A Krummacher (1824-1884)

Minna Koch (1845-1924)

$\text{♩} = 68$

1. Star, to which I'm look - ing, Rock, on which I stand,
2. How could I with - out Thee strength and cour - age share?
3. With what Thou hast giv - en I'll pur - sue my way

Lead - er, whom I'm trust - ing, Staff, that's in my hand,
Who, but Thee, could help me all my bur - dens bear?
till the bells of heav - en guide me home some day.

Bread, by which I'm liv - ing, Spring, at which I bow,
Lack - ing Thee I'd with - er like a sev - ered bough.
Then, a - new re - joic - ing, whis - per to Thee low:

Goal, for which I'm striv - ing: All, O Lord, art Thou!
Faith, hope, love to - geth - er: All, O Lord, art Thou!
"I can bring Thee noth - ing: All, O Lord, art Thou!"