

215 The Lord knows all his people

Karl J P Spitta (1801-1859)

John B Calkin (1827-1905)

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. The Lord knows all His peo - ple as in the
2. The Lord knows all His chil - dren, their faith casts 3. He knows their lov - ing na - ture, the fruits of 4. He knows them as His chos - en, their cour - age, days of yore. The might - y and the hum - ble on out all doubt. Not see - ing yet be - liev - ing, they God - ly love. They seek with hon - est long - ing to hope and zest. In hap - pi - ness u - nit - ed, they ev - 'ry land and shore. He'll save them from de - trust and hope through - out. All born of God's own please their Lord a - bove. Who do so un - to find in Him true rest. The truth of God has struc - tion; they nev - er are a - lone. In liv - ing Spir - it are nour - ished by His word. Be - fore this oth - ers as God has moved their heart, re - ceive as bril - liance that shines both free and pure up - on a and in dy - ing they will re - main His own. word they're bow - ing; they keep it, un - de - terred. they have giv - en, for God will grace im - part.

fold most bless - ed which al - ways will en - dure.