

218 Through every land they journey

Freda von Bethmann-Hollweg (1842-1916)

Johann Michael Haydn (1737-1806)

$\text{♩} = 72$

1. Through ev - 'ry land they jour - ney, the blest and
2. It is the song of Je - sus, that new song 3. Where - ev - er souls are gath - ered, with joy they 4. O bless - ed song of Je - sus! When will we ran - somed fold and from their hap - py voic - ces a they have found. From Cal - v'ry's cross its ech - o all all do sing the song of praise e - ter - nal, their sing a - bove? When will You come, dear Sav - iour, in won - drous song un - folds. It rings in lands of ov - er will re - sound. The song of Christ the thanks to Him they bring. And oth - ers join the Your great won-drous love? Come gath - er soon Your sor - row as from a hap - py throng who sing with Vic - tor, of how His life He gave by which He sing - ing, no words need they ex - press, their joy is cho - sen and now our souls pre - pare so we at deep - est yearn - ing, with praise, the Vic - tor's song. earned the ran - som for all, from death to save.

 seen on fac - es that beam with hap - pi - ness.
 last in glo - ry may sing Your prais - es there!