

219 Toiling bravely onward

based on Sabine Baring-Gould (1834-1924)

Arthur S Sullivan (1842-1900)

$\bullet = 96$

1-3. Toil-ing brave-ly on - ward, 1. come what - ev - er may;
2. to the goal a - way,
3. we to - day be - hold

in the love of Je - sus on - ward ev - 'ry day.
ev - en when de - ri - ded as in No - ah's day.
what was once the yearn - ing of the proph - ets old.

Though we may not bat - tle pleas - ing to man's will,
Though the foe may threat - en, fear shall have no place;
In the works of Je - sus see our might - y God.

yet the truth of Je - sus hu - man tongues can still.
Christ has us for - giv - en by His word of grace.
Je - sus leads us ev - er on - ward to our God.

1-3. Though the foe may threat - en, storm-y winds may blow, with the love of Je - sus let us on - ward go!