

236 Before my heart's King bowing

Dora Rappard-Gobat (1842-1923)

Karl Voigtländer (1827-1888)

♩ = 104

1. Be - fore my heart's King bow - ing a hum - ble
2. I will no long - er tar - ry by anx - ious
3. I know that His com - pas - sion is bound - less 4. O look up - on me kind - ly, on me, Your gift I bring and though it's small and mod-est, it fear dis - tressed; with joy - ful heart I'll ven - ture to like His grace. And ev - en poor - est sin - ners He fee - ble child. I look to You, my Sav - iour, for pleas - es Him, my King. It is my will I lean up - on His breast. For me His life He holds in fond em - brace, and through His love e - strength and mer - cy mild. I lay my hands now of - fer up - on this nar - row way, so that His of - fered, for me He shed His blood. Will He not ter - nal He seeks to make me whole. I will with glad - ly in Your al - might - y hand and know You mind and stat - ure may grow in me each day.

al - ways ren - der what whole - some is and good?
pa - tience fol - low His foot - steps to the goal.
home will lead me, up to the Fa - ther land.