

246 I want to love Thee more sincerely

Johann A Flessa (1694-1796)

Karl E Ellwanger (1796-1856)

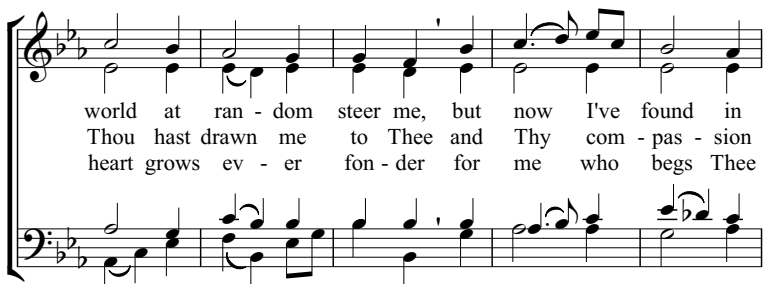

$\bullet = 84$

1. I want to love Thee more sin - cere - ly; my
2. De - ceived by foes, I spurned Thy mer - cy and
3. My dear - est Lord, I oft - en won - der if Sav - iour, give me strength for this. Long did the death I faced e - ter - nal - ly. Yet kind - ly e'er my love would per - fect grow. I know Thy world at ran - dom steer me, but now I've found in Thou hast drawn me to Thee and Thy com - pas - sion heart grows ev - er fon - der for me who begs Thee Thee true bliss. This bliss out-shines all fleet - ing gave to me. Friend of my soul, for love so help to show. I seek the wealth of Thy great pleas-ures, all roy - al crowns and earth - ly ten - der, take Thou my heart, I all sur - kind -ness; Thy light let shine, heal me from treas - ures: This bliss shows heav - en o - pen wide. ren - der. Ac - cept it, Lord, make it Thine own!

 blind -ness; let Thy per - fec - tion dwell in me.