

247 Just as God leads me

Lambert Gedicke (1683-1736)

Peter Sohren (1630-1692)

$\text{♩} = 76$

1. Just as God leads me I would go, I would not ask to
2. Just as God leads, I am con-tent. I rest so calm-ly 3. Just as God leads, I all re-sign. I trust e'er to my 4. Just as God leads me, I a-bide, in faith, in hope, in choose my way. Con-tent with what He will be-stow, asin His hands. I then ac-cept what He has sent, that Fa-ther's will. When rea-son's rays de-cep-tive shine, His suf-fring too. His strength is ev-er by my side, can sured He will not let me stray. So as He leads, my which His will of me com-mands. I would that He should coun-sel would I yet ful-fil. That which His love oraught my hold on Him un-do? Thus firm I stand, in path I make and ev-'ry step I glad-ly all ful-fil and I may do His ho-ly dained as right be-fore He brought me to the pa-tience know that God on me does grace betake, a child in Him con - fid - ing. will in liv - ing and in dy - ing.

light, I trea - sure now and ev - er. stow; the best in kind - ness send - ing.