

262 Take Thou my hand and lead me

Julie von Haussmann (1826-1901)

Philipp F Silcher (1789-1860)

$\text{♩} = 76$

1. Take Thou my hand and lead me, I Thee im -
2. Let Thy com - pas - sion shel - ter my fee - ble
3. Be Thou my light to guide me in dark - est
4. Though I can - not per - ceive Thee in all Thy plore, un - til my life is end - ed and ev - er - heart and make me ev - er pa - tient in joy or vale, for Thou a - lone can ban - ish all my tra - might, Thou to the goal will lead me, though dark the more. A - lone I can - not jour - ney, each step needs Thee.

smart! If faith - ful - ly I fol - low the nar - row way, vail! Thy hum - ble child, O Sav - iour, with Thee let rest.
night. Take Thou my hand and lead me, I Thee im - plore,

Where Thou would go and jour - ney, there take Thou me!
Thou sure - ly will me strength - en from day to day.
My eyes see at their clos - ing what - e'er is best.
un - til my life is end - ed and ev - er - more!