

264 To pray to God in heaven

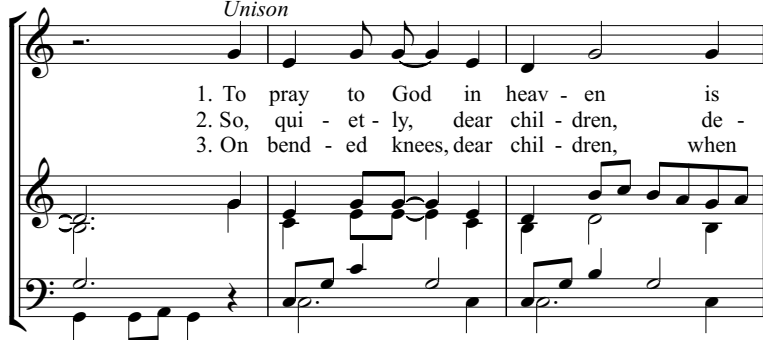

Poet unknown

Jacques Cronjé (b. 1966)

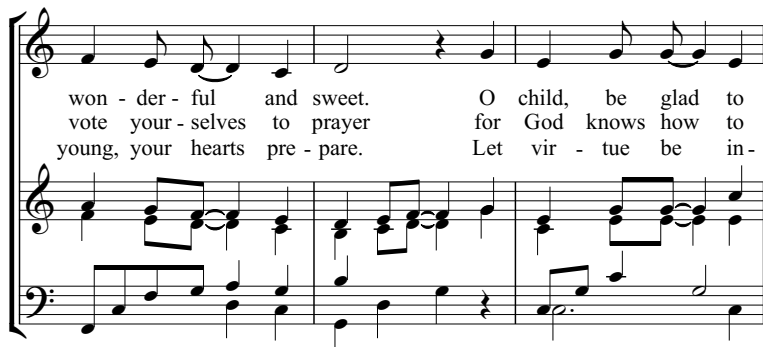

$\text{♩} = 100$

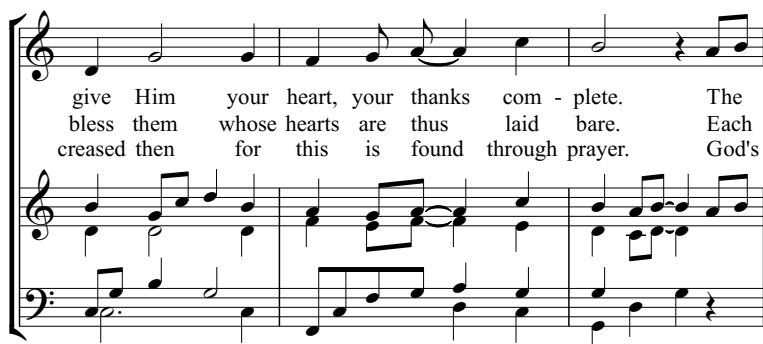

Unison

1. To pray to God in heav - en is
2. So, qui - et - ly, dear chil - dren, de - 3. On bend - ed knees, dear chil - dren, when won - der - ful and sweet. O child, be glad to vote your - selves to prayer for God knows how to young, your hearts pre - pare. Let vir - tue be in - give Him your heart, your thanks com - plete. The bless them whose hearts are thus laid bare. Each creased then for this is found through prayer. God's words are not spo - ken ac - cord - ing to one's mind, word is a treas - ure that child - like lips pre - sent;

 love will up - lift you, new strength through prayer will come.

— but thank - ful hearts be - to - ken a — on this will rest His plea - sure, with — Let God di - rect in vir - tue, your soul to God in - clined.

 this He is con - tent.
 Guide let Him be - come.