1. Hark! Who's knock-ing o'er and o'er? Who is wait-ing
2. Hark! He's knock-ing, hear His plea; He would en-ter, 3. Hark! He's knock-ing, kind and true, and He coun-sels at the door? 'Tis a God-ly Guest, my Sav-iour, who in sup with me. May my heart to Him be o-pen ev-'ry me a-new that this prom-ise which was giv-en to the love comes to im-plore. Ah, my heart, no long-er time I hear His call. Words of prom-ise He has souls that ov-er-come is that they may once in wav-er, let Him in and Him a-dore! spok-en to the faith-ful, one and all!

heav-en see the Fa-ther and His Son!
