

298 Of compassion and salvation

Jakob Breiter (1845-1893)

Hermann Ober (1926-2006)

$\text{♩} = 84$

1. Of com - pas - sion and sal - va - tion is the gos - pel
2. Thus the se - cret is com - pas - sion which to fall - en 3. Teach - ing with the Lord's com - mis - sion, preach - ing peace and from on high; to the poor of ev - 'ry na - tion it pro - man is shown, love di - vine in per - fect fash - ion which the rest to - day, brings the news of full re - mis - sion to the claims that help is nigh. To the lost it gives di - poor can claim their own. Whom this joy - ful gos - pel souls that went a - stray. Of com - pas - sion and sal - rec - tion, for the parched, a foun - tain cool; won - drous reach - es, they who feel its might - y surge, let them va - tion is the gos - pel from on high, to the helpflows in per - fec - tion from the Spir - it's spark - ling pool.

 go as Je - sus teach - es, let them oth - ers on - ward urge.
 poor of ev - 'ry na - tion it pro - claims that help is nigh.