

303 There is a call most precious based on James G Johnson, 1887

James McGranahan (1840-1907)

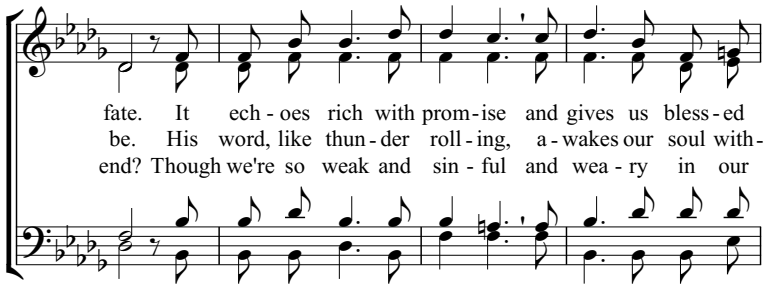

$\text{♩} = 70$

1. There is a call most pre-cious, so fer-vent and so
2. The words which He is voic-ing are sure to make us
3. Who would not come to Je-sus, to such a lov-ing great. It draws us ev-er near-er to meet a bless-ed free. What He to us is giv-ing shall ours for-ev-er Friend, and be with Him u-nit-ed who's faith-ful to the fate. It ech-oes rich with prom-ise and gives us bless-ed be. His word, like thun-der roll-ing, a-wakes our soul without? Though we're so weak and sin-ful and wea-ry in our rest. When Je - sus calls, we hast - en to lean up - on His in, sheds light up - on our path - way and takes a - way our souls, yet we can come to Je - sus and He will make us

Refrain

breast.
 sin. "Come, come un - to Me, O come, come un - to whole.

Me, though wea - ry, heav - y lad - en, come, come, O come to Me! Come, come un - to Me, O come, come un - to Me where rest to you is giv - en; O come, come un - to Me!"