

308 Whosoever heareth

Philip P Bliss (1838-1876)

Philip P Bliss (1838-1876)

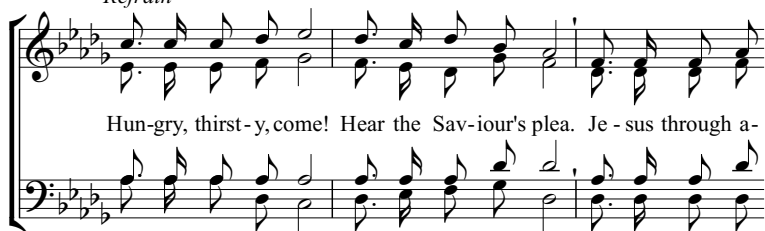

$\text{♩} = 72$

1. rings far and wide. "To the liv-ing
1-3. "Who-so-ev-er hear-eth," 2. hark, 'tis His word. Bless-ed he that
3. do not de-lay. Come now to refoun-tain, come," say Groom and Bride. They no more are thirst-y keep-eth all that he hath heard. All who seek sal-va-tion pen-tance, there's still grace to-day. Je-sus' word is liv-ing, who in Christ con-fide. 1-3.

are to grace re-ferred. Who-so-ev-er will, may come.
hear it while you may.

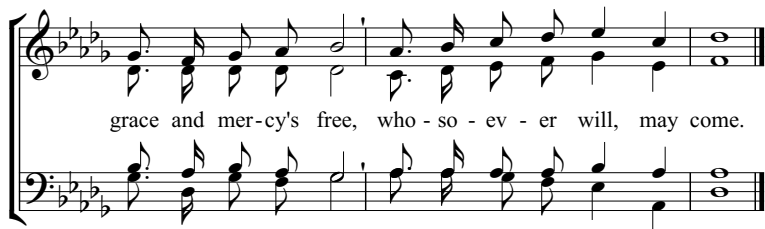

Refrain

Hun-gry, thirst-y, come! Hear the Sav-iour's plea. Je - sus through apos - tles call - eth: "Come to Me." Yet the door is o - pen, grace and mer-cy's free, who - so - ev - er will, may come.