

359 Sweetest bread of heaven

Friedrich Linde (1864-1933)

John Rodriques (b. 1979)

$\text{♩} = 64$

1. Sweet-est bread of heav - en, pre-cious food for
2. Sweet-est bread of heav - en grant-ed to my
3. May no spir - it ev - er take my joy a-

me,
soul.
way.

I could now par - take of;
I have been for - giv - en,
By Thy Spir - it guid-ed,

praise be - longs to Thee!
Christ has made me whole,
I would love dis - play.

Bless-ed peace be -
for He grants His Worth - i - ly I'll

stow-ing to my joy-ful heart;
 mer-cy when I Him im-plore,
 en-ter in that wed-ding hall,

and re-newed, I jour-ney heav'n-ward, ne'er from God to yet in love for me He coun-sels: "Go and sin no there to stand be-side my Fa-ther, God and Lord of part, and re-newed, I jour-ney heav'n-ward,

 more!" Yet in love for me He coun-sels:
 all, there to stand be-side my Fa-ther,

rit. Verses 1 & 2 Verse 3
 ne'er from God to part.
 "Go and sin no more!"
 God and Lord of all!

rit. Verses 1 & 2 Verse 3