

364 Behold, O how pleasant

Poet unknown
ref. Psalm 133

German traditional

$\text{♩} = 77$

1. Be - hold, O how pleas - ant when all God's chil - dren
2. Like dew from heav'n fall - ing up - on earth's pas - tures 3. For God sent the Sav - iour to free all souls from 4. On earth all the peo - ple may God's true light be - dwell on earth in peace and one - ness and here, thus fall up - on His chil - dren His sin; with gar - ments white He'll clothe them - e - hold, for there shall be one Shep - herd and love each oth - er well, on earth in peace and bless - ings they hold dear, thus fall up - on His ter - nal glo - ry bring, with gar - ments white He'll for His sheep one fold, for there shall be one one - ness and love each oth - er well! chil - dren His bless - ings they hold dear. clothe them - e - ter - nal glo - ry bring!

Shep - herd and for His sheep one fold.