

373 I have found a Friend in Jesus

Poet unknown

Composer unknown

$\text{♩} = 156$

1. I have found a Friend in Je - sus, there's none
2. He, my heart's de - light and sun - shine, now does 3. And now tell me where's an - oth - er, such a oth - er quite so true; ev - 'ry hour and ev - 'ry make my path-way bright, brings my soul peace and con - Friend as He on earth, who as He, my Lord and mo - ment do I feel His love a - new. He does tent - ment, fills my heart with love and light. Thus He Sav - iour, to my soul so much is worth? Could I lead on paths of safe - ty, guides me stills my deep - est long - ing, leads through speak with tongues of an - gels, prais - ing

He does lead on paths of safe - ty, Thus He stills my deep - est long - ing, Could I speak with tongues of an - gels, on the nar - row way, gives me peace and night to bright - est day. When my work on Him, my dear - est Friend, songs at best could guides me on the nar - row way, leads through night to bright - est day. prais - ing Him, my dear - est Friend, crowns with bless - ing, grants new grace from day to day.

 earth is o - ver, my last tears He'll wipe a - way.
 not ex - press it, for His love is with - out end.