

376 I praise God's love in adoration

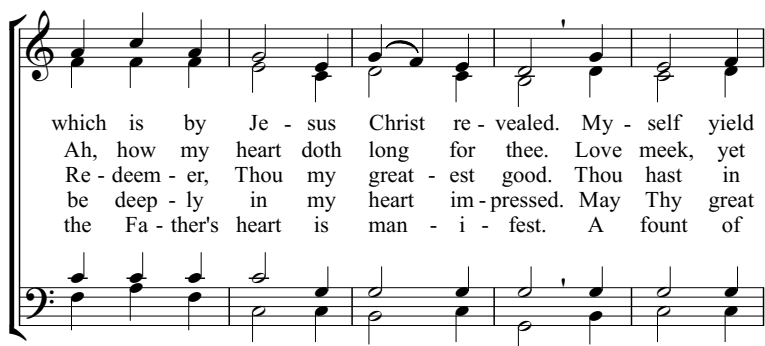

Gerhard Tersteegen (1697-1769)

Dimitri Bortniansky (1751-1825)

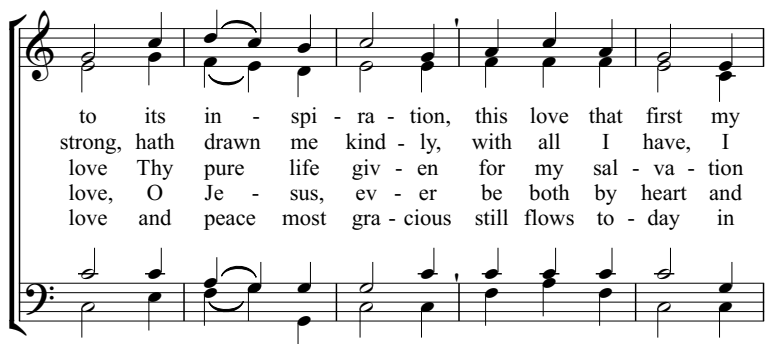

$\text{♩} = 72$

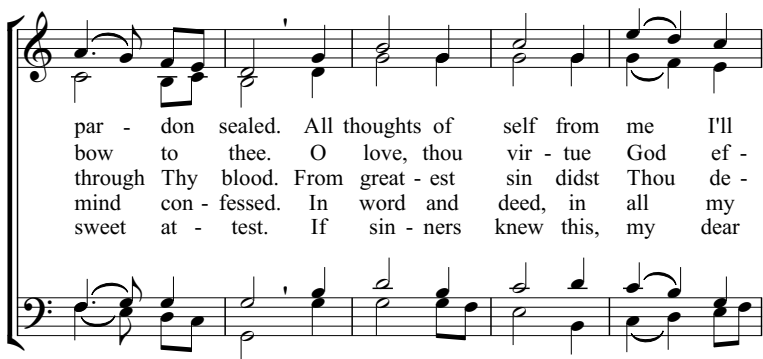

1. I praise God's love in ad - o - ra - tion
2. O love, thou art so kind and friend - ly;
3. My heart is Thine, in earth and heav - en,
4. O Je - sus, may Thy name for - ev - er
5. In this most pre - cious name of Je - sus, which is by Je - sus Christ re - vealed. My - self yield Ah, how my heart doth long for thee. Love meek, yet Re - deem - er, Thou my great - est good. Thou hast in be deep - ly in my heart im - pressed. May Thy great the Fa - ther's heart is man - i - fest. A fount of to its in - spi - ra - tion, this love that first my strong, hath drawn me kind - ly, with all I have, I love Thy pure life giv - en for my sal - va - tion love, O Je - sus, ev - er be both by heart and love and peace most gra - cious still flows to - day in par - don sealed. All thoughts of self from me I'll bow to thee. O love, thou vir - tue God ef - through Thy blood. From great - est sin didst Thou de - mind con - fessed. In word and deed, in all my sweet at - test. If sin - ners knew this, my dear ban - ish in - to the gulf of love to van - ish.

fec - ted, hath me and I have Thee se - lect - ed.
liv - er: I give my heart to Thee for - ev - er. na - ture, may Thou, Lord, be in ev - 'ry fea - ture.
Sav - iour, they soon in love would seek Thy fa - vour.