

379 Into pastures green and fair

A M Whitaker

George F Root (1820-1895)

$\text{♩} = 63$

1. In - to pas - tures green and fair leads the Shepherd us with
2. How we love to lin - ger there, far from ev - 'ry earth - ly
3. He is friend - ly, true and good, seeks us as a shep herd care, shows to us the fount of liv - ing wa - ters care and in prayer our hearts to God we there un - would when a lamb with - in the thick - et goes a - here. In this bless - ed peace we live, peace as fold. In its qui - et Him we hear as He stray. Breth - ren, let us ev - er - more fol - low on - ly He can give. O how bright be - comes the to our soul draws near, plain - ly speak - ing to us as He walks be - fore, 'til at last to glo - ry

Refrain

vi - sion and how clear!
words of love un - told.      Glo - rious stream of life e - He shall lead the way!

ter - nal; bless - ed, peace - ful pas - tures green. Je - sus' word is there re - vealed, man - y by Him would be healed; by the pure in heart a - lone can He be seen.