1. Lord, more would I love Thee, hear me I pray!
2. Once sought I with - out Thee my peace and rest.
3. Though there's a cross for me to bear each day,
4. When ends my mor - tal race, my earth - ly time,
5. Once when in glo - ry there, Lord, at Thy throne,

I make this earn - est plea to — Thee each day.
But now I clear - ly see in — Thee the best,
still shall it ev - er be my — choice to say:
I find with Thee a place — what — bliss sub - lime!
white rai - ment I shall wear and — have a crown,

More, Lord, would I love Thee, which is: Still more love Thee, 1-5.
Lord, more would I love Thee, O Sav - iour,
Then shall I more love Thee,
then shall I still love Thee,

more love Thee, still more love Thee, still — more love Thee.
