

386 O love, the golden sunshine bright

Poet unknown

Winton J Baltzell (1864-1928)

$\text{♩} = 82$

1. O love, the gold - en sun - shine bright, of
2. When from the cross that ray of love pierced 3. The Sun that shines my fears to quell and wea - ry hu - man hearts, when in my heart it through my night of sin and brought me sun - shine of - fers bliss to me is Je - sus, my Im - sheds its light, all pain from me de - parts. The from a - bove, I woke to God with - in. Since man - u - el, for all e - ter - ni - ty! I'll dark-ness fades and night must flee where Je - sus' love does then I know who loved me true, yes, e - ven un - to sing to Him my joy - ful song while in this vale of shine, and peace and hap - pi - ness flow free with - death. My heart shall now His will pur - sue; praise tears and ev - er with the heav'n - ly throng when

Refrain

in the hearts that pine.
 Him in ev - 'ry breath! O love of God, — so full and He to me ap - pears.

true, — of an - cient time, — yet ev - er new. It lives for me, it lives for

The first system of the musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff is a vocal line in a minor key, with lyrics "new. It lives for me, it lives for". The lower staff is a piano accompaniment with chords and moving lines. The music is in a 4/4 time signature.

you and draws us all to Him a - new.

The second system of the musical score continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are "you and draws us all to Him a - new.". The system concludes with a double bar line. The piano accompaniment features a steady harmonic support for the vocal melody.