

396 The love of God

Poet unknown

W Nelle, 1892

$\text{♩} = 156$

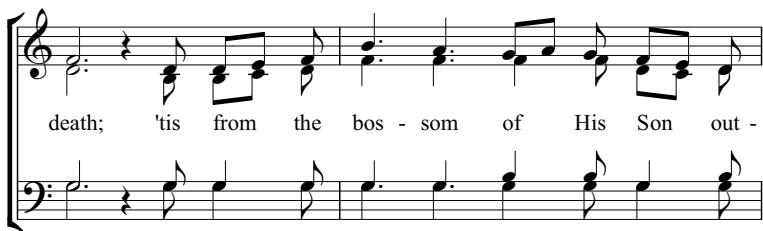

1. The love of God is strong - er than is death; -
2. They that have felt God's pure and might - y love, -
3. O blest the hearts which love with - in them bear -

'tis from the bos - som of His Son out - poured. In dir - est which to the Fa - ther them so warm - ly drew and filled the that surg - ing floods can nev - er wash a - way. O blest are need it is of life the breath, is full of com - fort, heart with Spir - it from a - bove, will not the cold, de - they who such a na - ture share like un - to Him who

Refrain

bring - ing one ac - cord. cep - tive world pur - sue. The love of God o'er - com - eth e - ven is the Liv - ing Way!

death; 'tis from the bos - som of His Son out - poured. In dir - est need it is of life the breath and brings the wea - ry heart_ in sweet ac - cord.