

398 To our loving God sing praises

Philipp F Hiller (1699-1769)

Edmund Bourne (b. 1951)

$\text{♩} = 72$

1. To our lov - ing God sing prais - es, for His
2. In God's love is rec - og - ni - tion of the 3. Love would have my heart be - liev - ing what my love shall ev - er last! Songs that, prompt-ed by God's Son whom He had sent. And this love is far sur - mind can - not con - ceive. Of this love shall none de - Spir - it, cour - age bring in stand - ing fast. With great pass - ing all man's knowl - edge and in - tent. To His prive me; Sa - tan seeks me to de - ceive. Love, may zeal God's pow'r is ac - tive, bring - ing Sa - tan's chil - dren, rich in mer - cy He has been and this be my as - sur - ance: Great re - ward is works to naught. Yes, our Lord is ev - er - will re - main. With com - pas - sion for the found in thee. Teach me that my song may lov - ing, us to His great Work has brought.

 sin - ner, He helps heav'n - ly heights at - tain.
 ev - er to the Lord praise - worth - y be!