

409 Gath'ring homeward, you pilgrims

Mary E Leslie (1834-?)

William A Ogden (1841-1897)

$\text{♩} = 142$

1. Gath-'ring home-ward, you pil-grims, from ev-'ry land:
2. Ver-y soon you shall en-ter that bless-ed rest:
3. Bless-ed Je-sus, our Sav-iour, to You we cling:

O re-joyce! O re-joyce! Wea-ry feet you'll soon
O re-joyce! O re-joyce! Ev-er near-er you O re-joyce! O re-joyce! In our hearts we are rest on that pearl-y strand. Come and re-joyce! Gold-en draw to your jour-ney's quest. Come and re-joyce! Let the thank-ful and prais-es bring. Come and re-joyce! Hav-ing crowns by the bless-ed are worn up there as they bil-lows be roar-ing, just trust the Lord, they but You as our Help-er we fear no night, for se-flour - ish their palms and sing prais - es fair. In His car - ry the pil - grims still heav - en - ward. All the cure - ly You lead to e - ter - nal light. On the glo - ry for - ev - er the Lamb be hold as He chil - dren of God strive for this, their aim: To ap - cross You have suf - fered that we may live and to

Refrain
leads in - to splen - dour the heav'n - ly fold.
pear be - fore Je - sus with - out a stain. O re - joice!
help us Your rod and Your staff did give.

O re - joice! Ju - bi - lant home - ward to heav'n we go!

O re - joice! O re - joice! Come and re - joice!