

412 How will it be

Karl J P Spitta (1801-1859)

Felix Mendelssohn (1809-1847)

$\text{♩} = 56$

1. How will it be then af - ter this life's jour - ney,
2. How will it be when we will hear Him call - ing:

when the last bat - tle's fought and we are free, and we with
"Come, all ye bless - ed, come, in - to the light"? When at God's

Him as bride go up to heav - en, pass through the por - tal throne we on the steps are stand - ing there face to face with of e - ter - ni - ty? When from our feet the dust of Him - O gra - cious sight! Then eyes will see where once the earth is shak - en, toil and its sweat at last are tears were flow - ing, all hu - man fears in heav - en wiped a - way; then we shall see the rea - sons for our will be stilled; all wounds and pain through His love then shall striv - ing that oft re - freshed our cour - age on life's way!

van - ish and with e - ter - nal bliss our souls be filled!