

439 Beyond, where clouds no more appear

L W Mansfield

George C Stebbins (1846-1945)

$\text{♩} = 59$

1. Be - yond where clouds no more ap - pear nor night the
2. No pain, nor suf - fring and dis - stress, dis - turb its
3. There shines the sun in bright - est hue, it fades the 4. Pain, suf - fring, want and guilt of sin, the earth I world en - shrouds, a man - sion's there pre - pared for ho - ly peace. With trans - formed eyes that home a - light of day. No mor - tal form can there ex - bid fare - well. I want to en - ter peace with

Refrain
me where naught my long - ing clouds. bove my soul al - read - y sees. I have a ist and night is far a - way.
God and in my home would dwell.

home, _____ it wait - eth mine, home, I have a home, it wait - eth mine, it wait - eth mine, a home God built for me! And where God's love and peace abide, my home shall ev - er be. (shall ev - er be) rit.