

446 In God's kingdom I long to be

Poet unknown

Composer unknown

$\text{♩} = 82$

1. In God's king - dom I long to be: O what
2. In God's king - dom I would re - main free from
3. In God's king - dom I would find rest and shall 4. In God's king - dom I want to be, where the 5. In God's king - dom I wish to stand. Hence I'm beau - ty I there shall see. Af - ter strife, scorn and sor - row and death and pain. Where all dark - ness is meet the re - deemed and blest. There we'll walk hand in bless - ed ones all things see. Where all faults and dis - pray - ing: "Lord, take my hand. O my soul now pre - pain, there a crown I shall gain and my Sav - iour I gone, ev - er bright shines the sun in that bless - ed and hand on that sweet pearl - y strand where soft breez - es the cord a - mong breth - ren are naught; in the i - mage of pare, rai - ment white there to wear at the wed - ding feast

Refrain

there shall see.
heav'n- ly home.
soul ca - ress. Bless-ed hope, O how pure and sweet, Christ then free!
great and grand!"

in Pa - ra - dise joy's com - plete. My Bride - groom is there, a place did pre - pare and I shall Him sure - ly meet.