$\text{♩} = 90$

1. Ten thou - sand times ten thou - sand in rai - ment
2. Through all the heav'ns re - sound - ing the gold - en
3. Through Thy great love and mer - it the sac - ri - 4. How joy - ful then the greet - ing when we our pure and white, the host re - deemed by Je - sus, goes harps now ring; like sounds of might - y o - ceans, the fice was made; Thou Lamb of God, by dy - ing the Sav - iour hail with loved ones who be - fore us have up to Zi - on's height. They now have gained the song the vic - tors sing! How sweet the joy of price of sin has paid. In le - gions now they're trod this tear - ful vale! The wid - ows and the vic - t'ry, His blood has cleansed from sin. Ye pearl - y heav - en when con - flicts here are o'er and God shall sing - ing be - fore the throne of God while thou - sand or - phans no long - er in dis - may, all des - o - gates, now o - pen and let the vic - tors in!

 grant a bless - ed re - ward on yon - der shore!
 times ten thou - sand here on the earth still plod.
 la - tion ceas - es, God wipes their tears a - way!

Refrain

Hal - le - lu - jah, hal - le - lu - jah! To Christ who for us died.

Hal - le - lu - jah, hal - le - lu - jah! Through Christ we're glo - ri - fied!
