

459 On Your ascension, Lord, alone

Josua Wendelin (1604-1640)

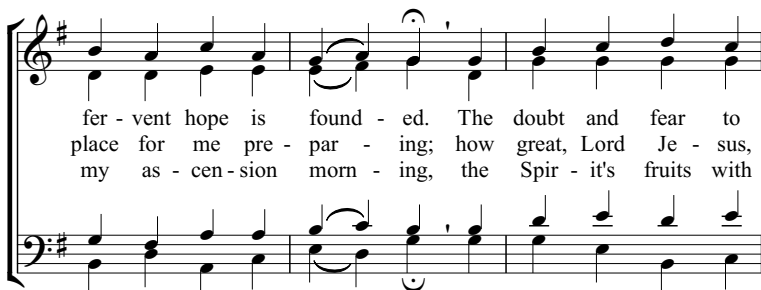

Ernst Sonneman (1630-1670)

Nicolaus Decius (1485-1546)

$\text{♩} = 80$

1. On Your as - cen - sion, Lord, a - lone my
2. The Lord a - rose to heav'n - ly heights, a 3. Oh, Lord, that by Your grace I may, on fer - vent hope is found - ed. The doubt and fear to place for me pre - par - ing; how great, Lord Je - sus, my as - cen - sion morn - ing, the Spir - it's fruits with which I'm prone are o - ver - come, con - found - ed. Now my de - light once glo - ry to be shar - ing! Through joy dis - play that are my soul a - dorn - ing. Then Christ, the Head, in heav - en waits and when God's time is grace You drew me to that place; al - read - y now my may I too on Your re - turn, trans - fig - ured with Your right, He takes His own to join the Fa - ther. heart em - brace; for You is all my yearn - ing.

own have earned to en - ter heav'n - ly glo - ry.