

484 Today we come anew

Poet unknown

Peter Lambert (b. 1964)

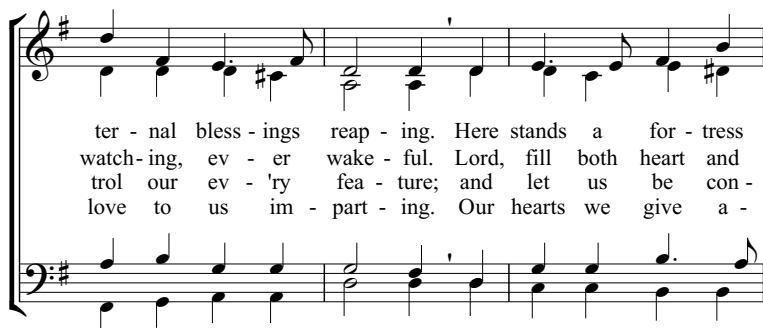

$\text{♩} = 88$

1. To - day we come a - new, com - mit our cares and
2. Lord, grant in this new year, new strength to keep us
3. Grant that we more and more sub - due our sin - ful 4. And when the time has come that we're this world de - keep - ing, Lord, in Thy faith - ful hands, e - faith - ful; that trust - ing we re - main, and na - ture; in bod - y, soul and mind, con - part - ing, pre - pare us through Thy grace, Thy ter - nal bless - ings reap - ing. Here stands a for - tress watch - ing, ev - er wake - ful. Lord, fill both heart and trol our ev - 'ry fea - ture; and let us be con - love to us im - part - ing. Our hearts we give a - safe that Sa - tan's host de - fies. God's mind with light from Thee on high; Thy tent Thy wis - dom, Lord to heed; what - new; with Thee we shall com - mune. O chil - dren there - in find a re - fuge He sup - plies.

 Ho - ly Spir - it's word let all our needs sup - ply.
 ev - er Thou may send will good - ness be in - deed. hear our dai - ly plea: "Come Thou, O Lord, come soon!"