

519 Sing, all you Christians

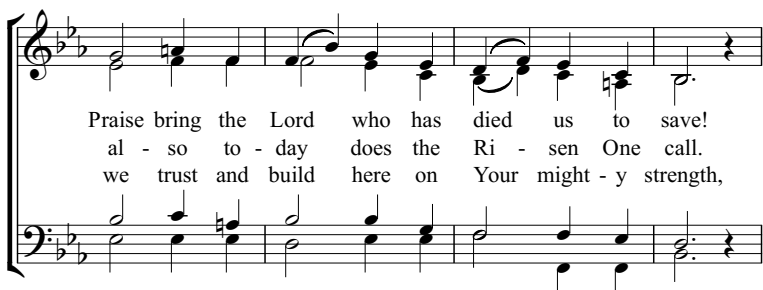

Ernst H Gebhardt (1832-1899)

Franz Abt (1819-1895)

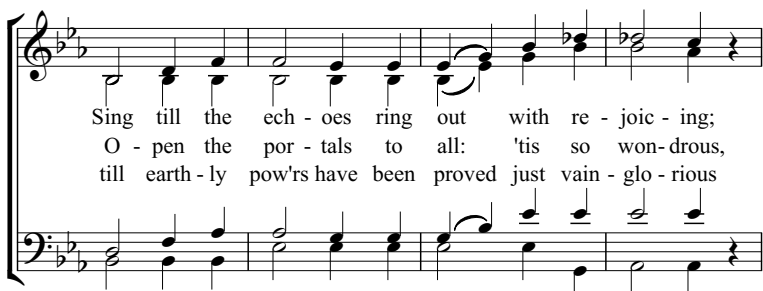

$\bullet = 80$

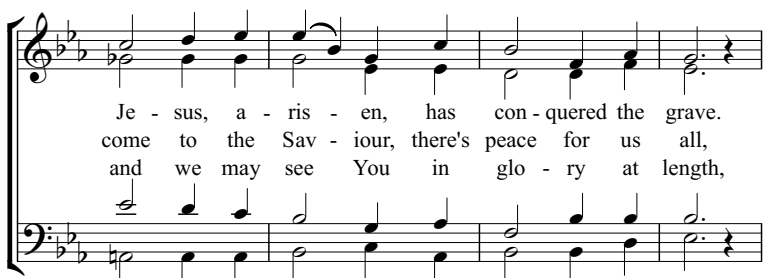

1. Sing, all you Chris-tians, glad hymns now be voic-ing!
2. "Peace un-to you", those are words great and glo-rious;
3. Lord, help our faith, help us fight, be vic-to-rious;

Praise bring the Lord who has died us to save!
al-so to-day does the Ri-sen One call.
we trust and build here on Your might-y strength,

Sing till the ech-oes ring out with re-joic-ing;
O-pen the por-tals to all: 'tis so won-drous,
till earth-ly pow'rs have been proved just vain-glo-rious

Je-sus, a-ris-en, has con-quired the grave.
come to the Sav-iour, there's peace for us all,
and we may see You in glo-ry at length,

Je - sus, a - ris - en, has con - quered the grave.
come to the Sav - iour, there's peace for us all.
and we may see You in glo - ry at length!
