

572 Lord, with fervence do we pray

Poet unknown

Composer unknown

$\text{♩} = 62$

1. Lord, with fer - vence do we pray, bless this cou - ple
2. Bless the la - bour of their hands, give them strength for
3. Let them one in spir - it be, of Thy Spir - it here to - day. They their lives de - vote to Thee so they life's de - mands. And with cour - age true to be, un - a - fruits to see. Bur - dens bear - ing hand in hand as Thou, whol - ly Thine may be! Fill their cov' - nant with Thy shamed to fol - low Thee. And if mis' - ry, want or Lord, didst once com - mand. Lead them safe - ly by Thy pow'r now at this and ev - 'ry hour and let the sun - shine care should up - on their hearts once bear, be Thou to them in hand till they reach the bet - ter land. Lord, let them ev - er of Thy love in their hearts shine from a - bove! Grant, O ev - 'ry need, faith - ful God, a help in - deed. Grant Thou watch - ful be and pre - pared to live for Thee, that when Lord, that by Thy grace they their pil - grim - age may trace. al - so af - ter pain, joy to fill their hearts a - gain.

they their lives lay down, they may wear the vic - tor's crown!