

581 We dedicate, now Lord, to Thee

Poet unknown

Philipp Nicolai (1556-1608)

$\text{♩} = 76$

1. We ded - i - cate now, Lord, to Thee this house, may it Thy
2. Lord, let this house of wor-ship be now ded - i - cat - ed dwelling be, for us a sa - cred hav - en. We'll un - to Thee; to Thee may it be pleas - ing. May find here peace and soul - ish rest and through Thy word be here be heard Thy liv - ing word, Thy grace on us here truly blest, while guid - ed home to heav - en.

be con - ferred with - in this hall of bless - ing.

Reign Thou, dwell now, make us wor - thy here to serve Thee,
One - ness, pure - ness our en - deav - our, may it ev - er

Lord of glo - ry! Bless this house we do im - plore Thee!
be our striv - ing, thus new strength and peace de - riv - ing.