

58 Praise thou the Lord

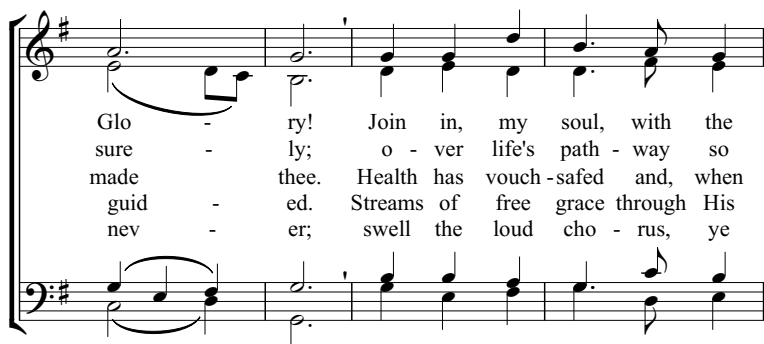

Joachim Neander (1650-1680)

Composer unknown
Stralsund, 1665

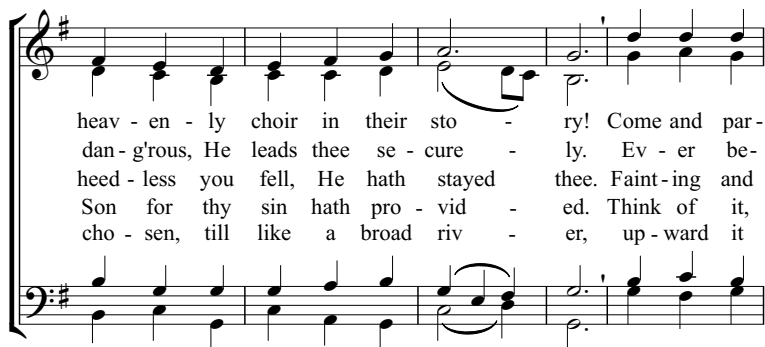

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. Praise thou the Lord, the om - nip - o - tent Mon - arch of
2. Praise thou the Lord who e'er rul - eth and guid - eth all
3. Praise thou the Lord who hath gra - cious - ly, won - drous - ly
4. Praise thou the Lord who thy life hath so vis - i - bly
5. Praise thou the Lord and for - get all His ben - e - fits Glo - ry! Join in, my soul, with the sure - ly; o - ver life's path - way so made the. Health has vouch - safed and, when guid - ed. Streams of free grace through His nev - er; swell the loud cho - rus, ye heav - en - ly choir in their sto - ry! Come and par - dan - g'rous, He leads thee se - cure - ly. Ev - er be - heed - less you fell, He hath stayed thee. Faint - ing and Son for thy sin hath pro - vid - ed. Think of it, cho - sen, till like a broad riv - er, up - ward it take; rise from thy slum - ber, a - wake!

 stows, mer - cy and help in our woes;
 weak, when not a word thou could speak,
 too, God the al - might - y and true, streams; soul, O for - get not this theme:

Sing the Cre - a - tor's great glo - ry!
 I from my heart thank Him tru - ly.
 wings of His mer - cy did shade thee.
 with His dear child has a - bid - ed.
 Praise Him, O praise Him for ev - er!