

59 Praise thou the Lord, O my soul

Johann D Herrnschmidt (1675-1723)

Composer unknown
Ansbach, 1664

$\text{♩} = 88$

1. Praise thou the Lord, O my soul, now praise Him!
2. Hap - py, yes hap - py, are they for - ev - er
3. Praise, O ye peo - ple, the name most glo - rious

His praise con - ti - nue un - til death! While I the whose help the God of Ja - cob is, who hath creof Him who reigns, Al - might - y King! All should u - path-ways of earth am tread - ing, God shall be praised with a - ted the earth and heav - en, the sea and all that nite in one ho - ly cho - rus, to God a hymn of ev - 'ry breath. My soul and bod - y did He give there - in is. Our God is Rul - er of the world, joy to bring. O Zi - on, with the heav'n - ly host and waits my praise from morn till eve.

 truth's ban - ner He hath e'er un - furled.
 praise Fa - ther, Son and Ho - ly Ghost.

1-3. Praise thou the Lord, _____ praise thou the Lord!