

61 Should I not to God be singing?

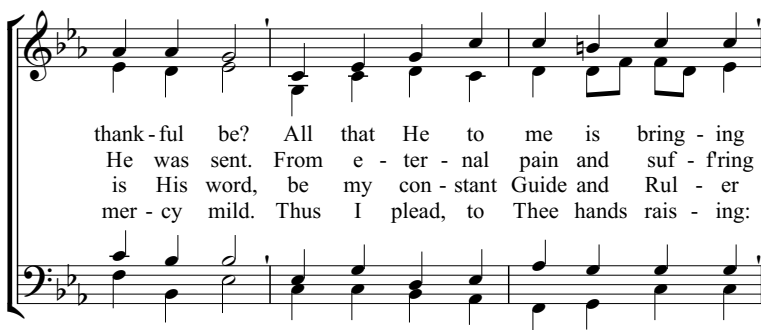

Paul Gerhardt (1607-1676)

Johann Schop (ca. 1600-1665)

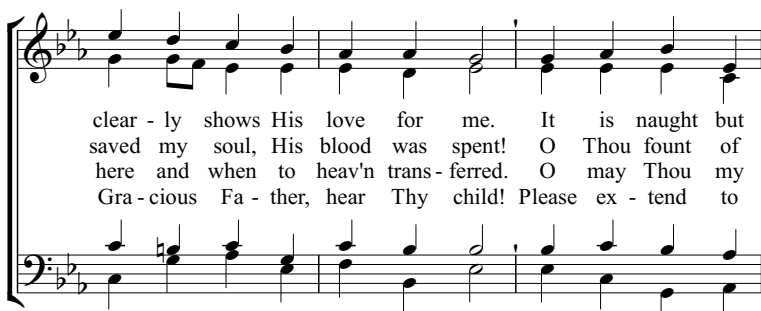

$\text{♩} = 76$

1. Should I not to God be sing - ing, ev - er to Him
2. God's own Son, a pre - cious off - 'ring, yes, for me too
3. Ho - ly Spir - it, no - ble Lead - er, grant - ed me, as
4. Lord, Thy end less love I'm prais - ing, bound - less, too, Thy thank - ful be? All that He to me is bring - ing He was sent. From e - ter - nal pain and suf - fring is His word, be my con - stant Guide and Rul - er mer - cy mild. Thus I plead, to Thee hands rais - ing:

clear - ly shows His love for me. It is naught but saved my soul, His blood was spent! O Thou fount of here and when to heav'n trans - ferred. O may Thou my Gra - cious Fa - ther, hear Thy child! Please ex - tend to lov - ing - kind - ness that His gra - cious heart does move.

 depth and beau - ty, how can I with hu - man mind heart be fill - ing with Thy ra - dian t truth and light; me Thy fa - vour, grant new strength and grace, I pray!

End - less, pa - tient - ly He proves: Those who fath - om why Thou art so kind though I van - quish death and all its might, hell and Be Thou near me night and day, let me fol - low Him, He bless - es. Earth - ly things shall search with zeal - ous du - ty? Earth - ly things shall all it's pow - er still - ing. Earth - ly things shall dwell with Thee for - ev - er. Praise and hon - our 1-3. pass a - way, God's love will for - ev - er stay!

 4. all are Thine, now and ev - er, Lord di - vine!