

65 Thus far the Lord God has me brought

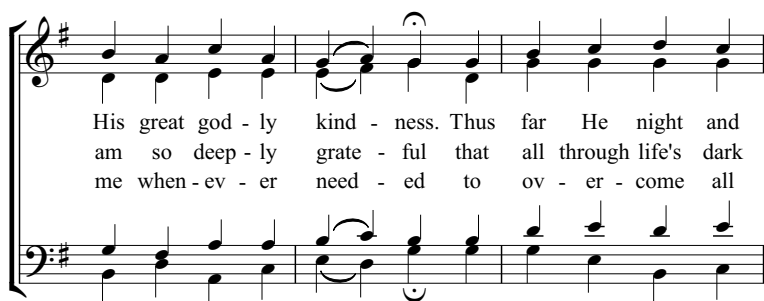

Ämilie Juliane von Schwarzburg-Rudolstadt (1637-1706)

Nicolaus Decius (1485-1546)

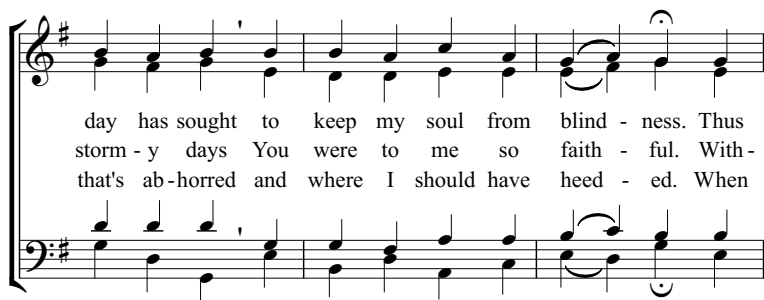

$\text{♩} = 80$

1. Thus far the Lord God has me brought through
2. To You, my God, be thanks and praise, I
3. Help fur - ther, too, my faith - ful Lord; help

His great god - ly kind - ness. Thus far He night and am so deep - ly grate - ful that all through life's dark me when - ev - er need - ed to ov - er - come all day has sought to keep my soul from blind - ness. Thus storm - y days You were to me so faith - ful. With - that's ab - horred and where I should have heed - ed. When far He did me safe - ly guide, thus far has me no in my heart I do re - cord the great things done by once the high - est goal at - tained e - ter - nal - ly I'll joy de - nied; thus far has been my Help - er.

You, O Lord; thus far You've been my Help - er.
praise Your name: for mer - cy, my great Help - er!